

CRUISE GROUND HANDLERS

We proudly provide assistance during the ship's turn day for most of the best Cruise Companies during their Mediterranean season, taking care of every single detail and any kind of arrangement required from the arrival of guests at the airport or during their stay in Hotels.

Every single aspect of a turnaround operation is planned and developed in advance, thanks to our dedicated staff and the ground handling management, which is constantly connected with Cruise Line head offices.

The essence of Italian style

As well, our staff is always available at the airport during the embarkation and disembarkation day in order to grant a continuous assistance for any event may occur. Thanks to our offices located in the main Italian cities, we guarantee a wide range of services including Hotel accommodation bookings and as well transportation by our own de luxe vehicles.

PRE & POST PACKAGE

We provide our guests with best assistance and hotel accommodation throughout their pre and post cruise packages.

Our dedicated and skilled staff will be at disposal for any de luxe transportation reservation, restaurant booking, multilingual official guide service and any other service and information you may need during your stay in the Belpaese.
